

STATEMENT

18 December 2015

WorkSafe has released the Continuing Professional Development (CPD) requirements in a Gazette notice on 10 December 2015. The Gazette notice can be found here: <http://www.business.govt.nz/worksafe/information-guidance/guidance-by-industry/extractives/documents-images/new-zealand-gazette-10-december-2015.pdf>

CPD comes into force as of 1 January 2016 which will require all certificates of competence (CoC) holders to meet and record the CPD requirements outlined in the Gazette Notice.

WorkSafe has provided information which outlines a summary of the requirements for CPD as well as the CPD Activity Logbook where a CoC holder will record CPD entries <http://www.business.govt.nz/worksafe/information-guidance/guidance-by-industry/extractives/documents-images/cpd-logbook.pdf>

Guidelines on how the CPD requirements will work can be found here: <http://www.business.govt.nz/worksafe/information-guidance/guidance-by-industry/extractives/documents-images/cpd-guidelines.pdf>

You can also contact the BoE for further information:

For more information

BoE Secretariat
WorkSafe New Zealand
PO Box 165
WELLINGTON
BoE_Secretariat@worksafe.govt.nz
Phone: 04 901 0696